Questions:- talk to Elisabeth Gauthier thanks!

I would like to thank Bob Kovanic and the Deacons who represent the full congregation for the care package he brought around the end of last week (December 12, 2025). Also thank you for the prayers of everyone in this rough year.

John Nimmon

Thank you to Our Church Family for the prayers, cards and food that were given to us during our recent "incidents." We appreciate each one of you!

Denny and Nancy McCullough

Thank you all for the donations to the Mitten Tree. A total of 154 items were delivered to the Salvation Army in Carlisle. Thanks again,
Doris Mae Kennedy.

We packed 197 bags of cookies for the Truck Stop Ministry, thanks to all those who helped in any way.

Well, we've done it—made it through another year. For some, it has been a great year! For others, you are simply glad to see the year turn, hoping that the year ahead will be better than the one now ending.

Some of us are greatly anticipating good things we have to look forward to: a wedding, retirement, graduation, a special trip, or a long-awaited reunion. Others of us are facing uncertainty—perhaps about our health or the health of a loved one, or about a challenge looming in the near future. No matter where we find ourselves as we head into a new year, it is good to remember that our God goes before us.

When the people of Israel were traveling through the desert, we are told: “By day the Lord went ahead of them in a pillar of cloud to guide them on their way and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so that they could travel by day or night. Neither the pillar of cloud by day nor the pillar of fire by night left its place in front of the people” (Exodus 13:21–22). Likewise, Jesus promised his disciples that he would not leave them as orphans but would send the Spirit, who would be the presence of God within them (John 14:16–18), and that he would be with them “to the very end of the age” (Matthew 28:20).

I believe these promises of Christ's presence were not only for them, but for us as present-day disciples as well. As Romans 8 reminds us, “God works everything for the good of those who love him.”

Just as God went before the people in the desert, he goes before us as well, leading us into the future—whatever it may hold—for us, our families, and our church.

In Psalm 139 we hear these words of comfort and hope: “Where can I go from your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence? If I go up to the heavens, you are there; if I make my bed in the depths, you are there. If I rise on the wings of the dawn, if I settle on the far side of the sea, even there your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast.”

In these words, there is great hope. In these promises we can go forward into the New Year knowing that we do not travel alone.

A blessed New Year to you all,

Pastor Vern

Session Speaks

Sherri Webber Mains

By now Christmas is over. The wrapping paper is in the trash, the lights are down, the gifts are put away, and the tree is thrown out or stored. The dark, cold of winter has settled in. The world has forgotten Christmas and is “back to normal”.

Have we Christians “packed away” Christmas, too? After all, isn’t “Jesus the Reason for the Season”? The GOOD news of Christ’s birth is still new every day! Jesus is still Immanuel – God is with us – 2000+ years ago and today.

The bright light of the star summoned the Wise men to see the Savior. The angelic choir and their bright light shown around the shepherds and they hurried to the newborn King. Will we be the people of the light? Will we invite the world to “Come see”? Will we act as the hands and feet of Jesus, serving others with grace and mercy?

I challenge First Church to be the “the light of the world”, the love of Christ, and the servant of all in a world who desperately needs hope! Take the joy of Christmas and live it out every day.
